Disclosure of Criminal and Child Protection Matters

Cardiff Sixth Form College is obliged by law to operate a checking procedure for employees who have substantial access to children and young people.

Exemption from Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

Cardiff Sixth Form College is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and subsequent amendments. You are not entitled to withhold information about convictions which would otherwise be considered as 'spent' unless they happened before your 18th birthday.

The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account. Guidance about whether a conviction or caution should be disclosed can be found on the Ministry of Justice website.

Since your 18 th birthday, do you have any unspent conditional cautions or convictions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974?	<input type="radio"/> YES/NO <input type="radio"/>

Have you been the subject of any disciplinary investigation and/or sanction by any organisation due to concerns about your behaviour towards children?	<input type="radio"/> YES/NO <input type="radio"/>
If you have answered yes, to any of the above, please provide full details by separate cover, sent to principal@ccoex.com, stating clearly the post to which you are applying for.

Disclosure and Barring Service

In the event of a successful application a Disclosure will be sought from the Disclosure & Barring Service in relation to criminal and child protection matters. A conviction will not necessarily be a bar to obtaining employment. Please sign below if you agree that the appropriate enquiry might be made.

References

Please give the names and addresses of two referees (one of whom should be your current/most recent employer and one a previous employer) who are in a position to comment on your work ability. These must not be a relative or someone acting solely as a friend. References will not be taken up without your knowledge, but will be contacted prior to an employment offer.

Referees will be asked:

- about any disciplinary offences you may have relating to children
- whether you have previously worked with children, please put down a referee for this post (if it is not already stated)

If you are currently in further education, please put down your tutor as a referee

Please note that we may also contact anyone else you have previously worked for in addition to the below

Consent to Disclose Personal Information for Employment Reference Purposes

I authorise my current/previous employer/tutor to disclose personal information about my employment/education should they receive a reference request from Cardiff Sixth Form College. This will include employment/education dates, reason for leaving, details of any disciplinary procedures during my employment and that there is nothing known to them which would render me unsuitable to be in an environment with children.
